

first, whether these articles of the Convention are in conformity with the existing laws, and secondly, whether they are in conformity with the principles of international law. The Chinese Government has not yet decided upon the course of action which it will take in regard to the Convention. It has, however, decided to send a Commission to London to examine the Convention and to report to the Chinese Government. The Commission will consist of three members, one of whom will be a Chinese official, one a British official, and one a neutral official. The Commission will be empowered to examine the Convention and to report to the Chinese Government. The Chinese Government has also decided to send a Commission to London to examine the Convention and to report to the Chinese Government. The Commission will consist of three members, one of whom will be a Chinese official, one a British official, and one a neutral official. The Commission will be empowered to examine the Convention and to report to the Chinese Government.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

